Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive. There are some large, stylized initial letters or symbols at the beginning of certain lines. The text appears to be in a historical language, possibly a form of Chinese or a related script, given the context of the image. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged piece of paper with significant historical value.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Burmese, covering the entire length of the strip. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. The script is dense and flowing, with some characters appearing to be in a different script or dialect. There are two prominent dark circular marks on the strip, one near the left edge and one near the right edge, which appear to be holes or damage to the material. The text is written in a dark ink or pigment on a light-colored, aged paper or parchment.
